

70TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ARMISTICE ON THE KOREAN PENINSULA

Prospects and Challenges for a Peace Agreement

FRIDAY, JULY 28, 9AM-3PM | GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Lindner Commons, Room 602, Washington, DC

Introduction: 9am-9:15am

- Linda Yarr, Director of Partnerships for International Strategies in Asia, George Washington University
- Christine Ahn, Women Cross DMZ Founder and Executive Director

Keynote: 9:15am-10am

- Bruce Cumings, Center for East Asian Studies, University of Chicago

Panel 1: Human Costs of Unending War:

10:10am-11:30am

- Kee Park, M.D., Harvard University Department of Global Health and Social Medicine
- Joy Gebhart, divided family member
- Rick Downes, Executive Director, Coalition of Families of Korean & Cold War POW/MIAs
- moderated by Jennifer Deibert, DPRK Program Director, American Friends Service Committee

Panel 2: Peace to Prevent Nuclear War:

1pm-2:20pm

- Dan Leaf, retired U.S. Air Force Lieutenant General
- Siegfried Hecker, Professor of Practice at the Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey and at Texas A&M University
- Ann Wright, retired U.S. Army Colonel, Veterans for Peace
- moderated by Ji-Yeon Yuh of Northwestern University

Closing remarks: 2:20pm

- Cathi Choi, Director of Policy and Organizing at Women Cross DMZ

Seating is limited. Register for the webinar at bit.ly/3XnKwrZ.

Co-convenors: American Friends Service Committee | KAPF | Korea Peace Now! Grassroots Network
Mennonite Central Committee | NAKA (The National Association of Korean Americans)
Rotary International | The United Methodist Church | Veterans for Peace | Women Cross DMZ

PARTNERSHIPS
FOR INTERNATIONAL
STRATEGIES
IN ASIA

ELLIOTT SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS